

THIS WEEK AT OU CATHOLICS - Cardboard Nation. Pope Francis said, "The many situations of inequality, poverty and injustice, are signs not only of a profound lack of fraternity, but also of the absence of a culture of solidarity." Join us Wednesday at 7:00 P.M. for our discussion exploring homelessness and poverty in Southeast Ohio and spend the night on the lawn of Christ the King as an act of solidarity with our community experiencing homelessness.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY - Habitat for Humanity of SE OH will be doing a blitz build for a Faith Build Coalition-sponsored house in Amesville on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 10-11. A blitz build means the house goes from sub-floor to roof completion in 2 days. We need to have about 40 people each day. If you want to volunteer please contact Samantha Waldron (samantha@habitatseo.org or 740-592-0032 x102) to sign up. (There will also be prep work the week of Oct. 30th as well as further work afterwards; for that, also contact Samantha.)

PROJECT RACHEL - The Diocese of Steubenville is launching a Project Rachel Ministry to offer hope & healing to women (& men) who have been wounded by abortion. It has been clearly shown that many people carry deep wounds from involvement in abortion — often for many decades — & often they despair of God's love & mercy. Our Project Rachel Ministry is a great opportunity to share the unconditional love of God with these people who are so in need of His mercy.

There are brochures available at all our parishes with information about the program as well as contact information.

YOUNG ADULTS GROUP - On Saturday, Nov. 4th, Fr. Nic Ventura of Holy Trinity Church in Jackson, OH will host us for a holy hour, Mass and confessions, and a trip to the local brewery. We will meet in Christ the King Church parking lot at 3:30 P.M. and carpool together to Jackson.
